DUST OF DESIRE
Scene from "Dust of Desire," the next picture of Norma Talmadge. This is a drama of the Algerian Sahara in which Norma plays the role of an Ouled Nail dancing girl. Joseph Schildkraut, star of the Continental and New York speaking stages plays opposite, taking the part of a French Government spy.

LOWLY SEWER PIPE TO TEST EINSTEIN THEORY
Photo shows the line of earthen sewer pipe, two blocks long, laid at the University of Chicago, at the direction of Prof. Albert Michelson, head of the Department of Physics of the University, and Prof. Henry Gordon Gale, dean of the Graduate School of Science. Recording apparatus and various other instruments have been installed in wooden sheds at each end of the tube. With them the professors hope to either controvert the Einstein doctrine of relativity or establish it as a physical law, on a parity with the law of gravitation. This apparatus, they say, is entirely too small for a strictly accurate and scientific test—so a large field at least a quarter of a mile square may be used later, with a tube a quarter of a mile long.

AMERICAN JUNIOR RED CROSS EMBLEM FOR 1923

THE LATEST IN "BUG PROOF" ARMOR
Miss Sarah Ravendal, of Sioux Falls, S. D., a Smith College girl, and daughter of the American Consul-General at Constantinople, who is now a Near East Relief Worker. She is seen here inspecting a child refugee in one of the camps on the Bosphorus for typhus-carrying lice. Her costume was designed by Dr. Wilfred W. Post, physician in charge for the relief organization work in the refugee camps, to protect relief workers from the deadly bug after it had claimed as victims several Americans and hundreds of refugees.
